

Appendix B – Self-Assessment Form

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and discussed at the landlord’s governing body annually.

Evidence should be included to support all statements with additional commentary as necessary.

Explanations must also be provided where a mandatory ‘must’ requirement is not met to set out the rationale for the alternative approach adopted and why this delivers a better outcome.

Section 1 - Definition of a complaint

Mandatory ‘must’ requirements

Code Section	Code Requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: ‘An expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.’	Yes	Complaint’s definition included within complaints policy (section 3.2).

1.3	The resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must still be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes	Staff are trained to recognise the difference between a service request, survey feedback and a formal complaint and take appropriate steps to resolve the issue for customers as early as possible'. Staff will signpost customers on how to make a complaint, if they air their dissatisfaction, should they wish to do so. Refer point 2.3 which states 'Customers can authorise someone else to raise a concern on their behalf, such as an advocate. This could be a friend /relative or a representative from an external organisation, such as citizen's Advice.
1.6	... if further enquiries are needed to resolve the matter, or if the resident requests it, the issue must be logged as a complaint.	Yes	Refer to point 3.3
1.7	A landlord must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so.	Yes	Refer to 'Exclusions'
1.8	A complaints policy must clearly set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered, and these circumstances should be fair and reasonable to residents.	Yes	Refer 'Exclusions' points 3.19 – 3.30
1.9	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, a detailed explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Refer to point 3.30

1.4	Landlords should recognise the difference between a service request, where a resident may be unhappy with a situation that they wish to have rectified, and a complaint about the service they have/have not received.	Yes	Refer point 1.3 above
1.5	Survey feedback may not necessarily need to be treated as complaint, though, where possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue their dissatisfaction as a complaint if they wish to.	Yes	Refer point 1.3 above

Section 2 - Accessibility and awareness

Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which residents can make a complaint such as in person, over the telephone, in writing, by email and digitally. While the Ombudsman recognises that it may not be feasible for a landlord to use all of the potential channels, there must be more than one route of access into the complaints system.	Yes	Our Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy (section 2.2) details channels available for residents to make a complaint.
2.3	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the number of stages involved, what will happen at each stage and the timeframes for responding.	Yes	Our Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy is published on our website and is referenced in our Customer Annual Report
2.4	Landlord websites, if they exist, must include information on how to raise a complaint. The complaints policy and process must be easy to find on the website.	Yes	Information on how we deal with complaints and how to make a complaint is available on our website: https://beyondhousing.co.uk/a-new-way-of-dealing-with-complaints/ https://beyondhousing.co.uk/contact-us/make-a-complaint/
2.5	Landlords must comply with the Equality Act 2010 and may need to adapt normal policies, procedures, or processes to accommodate an individual's needs. Landlords must satisfy themselves that their policy sets out how they will respond to reasonable adjustments requests in line with the Equality Act and that complaints handlers have had appropriate training to deal with such requests.	Yes	Equality and diversity are included in the complaints policy (section 2.5) and states Beyond Housing is committed to the principles of diversity and inclusion, i.e., fairness, accessibility and transparency. Beyond Housing values diversity and is committed to promoting the equality of opportunity to ensure all customers are treated fairly. Beyond Housing will seek to identify

		customers who are vulnerable and account for their specific needs when handling their complaint by making appropriate and reasonable adjustments. Equality, diversity and inclusion is the fundamental principal underpinning behaviours Beyond Housing expect colleagues to display in dealings with customers, colleagues and other stakeholders. The principles are clearly set out in the equality, diversity, and inclusion policy, which was revised in April 2020. The policy can be accessed by customers via the website, with information and guidance on areas for support: https://beyondhousing.co.uk/inclusion-equality-and-diversity/
2.6	Landlords must publicise the complaints policy and process, the Complaint Handling Code and the Housing Ombudsman Scheme in leaflets, posters, newsletters, online and as part of regular correspondence with residents.	Yes We publish our complaints policy online; https://beyondhousing.co.uk/weve-updated-our-concerns-complaints-and-compliments-policy/ We publish the Complaint Handling Code online; https://housing-ombudsman.org.uk/landlords-info/complaint-handling-code/?utm_source=sendinblue&utm_campaign=Our updated Concerns Complaints and Compliments Policy&utm_medium=email We include a complaint handling leaflet with every stage 1 complaint acknowledgement letter and publish it on our website; https://beyondhousing.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Complaints-and-compliments-leaflet.pdf

			Detail of the Housing Ombudsman scheme are displayed on posters, or on TVs in office reception areas and in our Customer Annual Report.
2.7	Landlords must provide residents with contact information for the Ombudsman as part of its regular correspondence with residents.	Yes	Included in Beyond Housings Customer Annual Report and Customer Newsletters
2.8	Landlords must provide early advice to residents regarding their right to access the Housing Ombudsman Service throughout their complaint, not only when the landlord's complaints process is exhausted.	Yes	We issue a complaint handling information leaflet with every stage 1 complaint acknowledgement letter.

Best practice 'should' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
2.2	Where a landlord has set up channels to communicate with its residents via social media, then it should expect to receive complaints via those channels. Policies should contain details of the steps that will be taken when a complaint is received via social media and how confidentiality and privacy will be maintained.	Yes	Section 2.2 of our Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy includes 'social media' as a channel to report a complaint and states we will utilise private messaging to respect confidentiality.

Section 3 - Complaint handling personnel

Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
3.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling to ensure complaints receive the necessary attention, and that these are reported to the governing body. This Code will refer to that person or team as the "complaints officer".	Yes	Beyond Housing has a dedicated independent complaints manager and complaints team, to ensure complaints are resolved quickly and effectively, in line with the Ombudsman's Complaints Handling Code.
3.2	...the complaint handler appointed must have appropriate complaint handling skills and no conflicts of interest.	Yes

Best Practice 'should' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
3.3	Complaint handlers should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be able to act sensitively and fairly - Be trained to handle complaints and deal with distressed and upset residents - Have access to staff at all levels to facilitate quick resolution of complaints - Have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes quickly and fairly. 	Yes	Complaint team members are trained to handle complaints in a sensitive manner. They have good working relationships with colleagues across the business, to collaborate to facilitate timely and effective resolution of complaints.

Section 4 - Complaint handling principles

Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.1	Any decision to try and resolve a concern must be taken in agreement with the resident and a landlord's audit trail/records should be able to demonstrate this. Landlords must ensure that efforts to resolve a resident's concerns do not obstruct access to the complaints procedure or result in any unreasonable delay. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'pre-complaint stage') as this causes unnecessary confusion for residents. When a complaint is made, it must be acknowledged and logged at stage one of the complaints procedure within five days of receipt .	Yes	A concern is an expression of dissatisfaction where we aim for quick problem solving within three working days. All concerns are logged and made in agreement with the customer and a full audit trail of notes and contacts is available for each case.
4.2	Within the complaint acknowledgement, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification and the full definition agreed between both parties.	Yes	When we allocate a complaint to the Lead Officer, they attempt to contact customer to discuss their complaint and understand what outcome they are seeking to resolve the matter. If unable to contact the customer, we will investigate the complaint based on the information provided. If unable to fully investigate the complaint due to lack of supporting information we will write to the customer to advise.
4.6	A complaint investigation must be conducted in an impartial manner.	Yes

4.7	The complaint handler must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Deal with complaints on their merits - Act independently and have an open mind - Take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest - Consider all information and evidence carefully keep the complaint confidential as far as possible, with information only disclosed if necessary to properly investigate the matter. - Keep the complaint confidential as far as possible, with information only disclosed if necessary to properly investigate the matter. 	Yes
4.11	Landlords must adhere to any reasonable arrangements agreed with residents in terms of frequency and method of communication.	Yes	When a Lead Officer contacts a customer to acknowledge complaint, they agree their preferred method of communication and frequency of updates.
4.12	The resident, and if applicable any staff member who is the subject of the complaint, must also be given a fair chance to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - set out their position - comment on any adverse findings before a final decision is made. 	Yes	Lead Officers attempt to contact customer to discuss their findings, before responding in writing.
4.13	A landlord must include in its complaints policy its timescales for a resident to request escalation of a complaint.	Yes	Refer section 3.11 of complaints policy (28 days to appeal)
4.14	A landlord must not unreasonably refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure and must have clear and valid reasons for taking that course of action. Reasons for declining to escalate a complaint must be clearly set out in a landlord's complaints policy and must be the same as the reasons for not accepting a complaint.	Yes	Refer Exclusions 3.19-3.30.
4.15	A full record must be kept of the complaint, any review and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties and any reports or survey prepared.	Yes	A casefile is created for each complaint and all documentation is saved digitally for reference.

4.18	Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives when pursuing a complaint.	Yes	Refer Unacceptable Behaviour Policy Unacceptable Behaviour Policy.pdf

Best practice 'should' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
4.3	Landlords should manage residents' expectations from the outset, being clear where a desired outcome is unreasonable or unrealistic	Yes	This is discussed with customer at the acknowledgement stage of a complaint by the Lead Officer.
4.4	A complaint should be resolved at the earliest possible opportunity, having assessed what evidence is needed to fully consider the issues, what outcome would resolve the matter for the resident and whether there are any urgent actions required.	Yes
4.5	Landlords should give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord where this is reasonable.	Yes	Refer point 2.3 of Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy
4.8	Where a key issue of a complaint relates to the parties' legal obligations landlords should clearly set out their understanding of the obligations of both parties.	Yes

4.9	Communication with the resident should not generally identify individual members of staff or contractors.	Yes
4.10	Landlords should keep residents regularly updated about the progress of the investigation.	Yes	Frequency and method as agreed in acknowledgement of complaint telephone discussion
4.16	Landlords should seek feedback from residents in relation to the landlord's complaint handling as part of the drive to encourage a positive complaint and learning culture.	Yes	A complaints satisfaction survey is sent to all customers upon closure of stage 1 complaint. Feedback is analysed to drive improvements in complaint handling.
4.17	Landlords should recognise the impact that being complained about can have on future service delivery. Landlords should ensure that staff are supported and engaged in the complaints process, including the learning that can be gained.	Yes	The complaints team support staff with the complaints process and analysing the root cause of complaints to identify service improvements.
4.19	Any restrictions placed on a resident's contact due to unacceptable behaviour should be appropriate to their needs and should demonstrate regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.	Yes

Section 5 - Complaint stages

Mandatory 'must' requirements Stage 1

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
5.1	Landlords must respond to the complaint within 10 working days of the complaint being logged. Exceptionally, landlords may provide an explanation to the resident containing a clear timeframe for when the response will be received. This should not exceed a further 10 days without good reason.	Yes	We have achieved 99% of responding to complaints within 10 working days or agreed extended deadlines.
5.5	A complaint response must be sent to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue, are completed. Outstanding actions must still be tracked and actioned expeditiously with regular updates provided to the resident.	Yes	Any outstanding actions are logged and tracked until completion.
5.6	Landlords must address all points raised in the complaint and provide clear reasons for any decisions, referencing the relevant policy, law and good practice where appropriate.	Yes
5.8	Landlords must confirm the following in writing to the resident at the completion of stage one in clear, plain language: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the complaint stage the decision on the complaint the reasons for any decisions made the details of any remedy offered to put things right details of any outstanding actions details of how to escalate the matter to stage two if the resident is not satisfied with the answer.	Yes	Complaints Manager, or equivalent, quality checks all stage 1 responses to ensure all required information is included and all issues raised are addressed.

Stage 2

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
5.9	If all or part of the complaint is not resolved to the resident's satisfaction at stage one it must be progressed to stage two of the landlord's procedure, unless an exclusion ground now applies. In instances where a landlord declines to escalate a complaint it must clearly communicate in writing its reasons for not escalating as well as the resident's right to approach the Ombudsman about its decision.	Yes
5.10	On receipt of the escalation request, landlords must set out their understanding of issues outstanding and the outcomes the resident is seeking. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification and the full definition agreed between both parties.	Yes	A senior manager will contact customer to discuss stage 2 complaint and the outcome customer is seeking.
5.11	Landlords must only escalate a complaint to stage two once it has completed stage one and at the request of the resident.	Yes
5.12	The person considering the complaint at stage two, must not be the same person that considered the complaint at stage one	Yes	A senior manager will consider a stage 2 complaint.
5.13	Landlords must respond to the stage two complaint within 20 working days of the complaint being escalated. Exceptionally, landlords may provide an explanation to the resident containing a clear timeframe for when the response will be received. This should not exceed a further 10days without good reason.	Yes	Within 2022, we have achieved 100% target of responding to stage 2 complaints within 20 working days or agreed extended deadlines.
5.16	Landlords must confirm the following in writing to the resident at the completion of stage two in clear, plain language: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The complaint stages - The complaint definition - The decision on the complaint - The reasons for any decisions made - The details of any remedy offered to put things right - Details of any outstanding actions And <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - If the landlord has a third stage, details of how to escalate the matter to a stage three - If this was the final stage, details of how to escalate the matter to the Housing Ombudsman Service if the resident remains dissatisfied. 	Yes	Complaints Manager, or equivalent, quality checks all stage 2 responses to ensure all required information is included and all issues raised are addressed.

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
5.17	Two stage landlord complaint procedures are ideal. This ensures that the complaint process is not unduly long. If landlords strongly believe a third stage is necessary, they must set out their reasons for this as part of their self-assessment. A process with more than three stages is not acceptable under any circumstances.	N/A	We have a two-stage complaint policy.
5.20	Landlords must confirm the following in writing to the resident at the completion of stage three in clear, plain language: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- the complaint stage- the complaint definition- the decision on the complaint- the reasons for any decisions made- the details of any remedy offered to put things right- details of any outstanding actions- details of how to escalate the matter to the Housing Ombudsman Service if the resident remains dissatisfied. Stage 1

5.2	If an extension beyond 20 working days is required to enable the landlord to respond to the complaint fully, this should be agreed by both parties.	Yes	Details of how and why extended deadlines agreed are logged for reference purposes.
5.3	Where agreement over an extension period cannot be reached, landlords should provide the Housing Ombudsman's contact details so the resident can challenge the landlord's plan for responding and/or the proposed timeliness of a landlord's response.	Yes	Refer point 3.6 in Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy
5.4	Where the problem is a recurring issue, the landlord should consider any older reports as part of the background to the complaint if this will help to resolve the issue for the resident.	Yes
5.7	Where residents raise additional complaints during the investigation, these should be incorporated into the stage one response if they are relevant and the stage one response has not been issued. Where the stage one response has been issued, or it would unreasonably delay the response, the complaint should be logged as a new complaint.	Yes	Refer point 3.10 in Concerns, Complaints and Compliments Policy

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary, and any explanations
5.14	If an extension beyond 10 working days is required to enable the landlord to respond to the complaint fully, this should be agreed by both parties.	Yes	Details of how and why this is agreed is logged for record purposes.

Section 6 - Putting things right

Mandatory 'must' requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
6.1	Effective dispute resolution requires a process designed to resolve complaints. Where something has gone wrong a landlord must acknowledge this and set out the actions it has already taken, or intends to take, to put things right.	Yes	Complaints Manager, or equivalent, conducts root cause analysis, and quality checks all complaint responses to ensure this information is provided to customer to demonstrate learning from complaints.
6.2	Any remedy offered must reflect the extent of any service failures and the level of detriment caused to the resident as a result. A landlord must carefully manage the expectations of residents and not promise anything that cannot be delivered or would cause unfairness to other residents.	Yes
6.5	The remedy offer must clearly set out what will happen and by when, in agreement with the resident where appropriate. Any remedy proposed must be followed through to completion.	Yes	All remedies/outstanding actions are agreed with customer, logged and tracked to completion.
6.6	In awarding compensation, a landlord must consider whether any statutory payments are due, if any quantifiable losses have been incurred, the time and trouble a resident has been put to as well as any distress and inconvenience caused.	Yes	We have revised our compensation procedure which includes these natures of payments.

7.3	A member of the governing body should be appointed to have lead responsibility for complaints to support a positive complaint handling culture. This role will be responsible for ensuring the governing body receives regular information on complaints that provides insight to the governing body on the landlord's complaint handling performance.	Yes	Steve Rawson, Chief Operating Officer, is the named lead colleague.
7.4	As a minimum, governing bodies should receive: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Regular updates on the volume, categories and outcome of complaints, alongside complaint handling performance including compliance with the Ombudsman's orders. - Regular reviews of issues and trends arising from complaint handling. - The annual performance report produced by the Ombudsman, where applicable. - Individual complaint outcomes where necessary, including where the Ombudsman made findings of severe maladministration or referrals to regulatory bodies. The implementation of management responses should be tracked to ensure they are delivered to agreed timescales. The annual self-assessment against the Complaint Handling Code for scrutiny and challenge. 	Yes	We share these lessons with customers via our website and our customer annual report. A quarterly report is reviewed by the senior leadership team, including complaints, performance and trends, and a summary of all customer feedback (including complaints) is shared with the Beyond Housings Board Members, in addition to an annual customer report.

7.5	Any themes or trends should be assessed by senior management to identify potential systemic issues, serious risks or policies and procedures that require revision. They should also be used to inform staff and contractor training.	Yes	Refer to point 6.3
7.6	Landlords should have a standard objective in relation to complaint handling for all employees that reflects the need to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - have a collaborative and co-operative approach towards resolving complaints, working with colleagues across teams and departments - take collective responsibility for any shortfalls identified through complaints rather than blaming others - act within the Professional Standards for engaging with complaints as set by the Chartered Institute of Housing. 	Yes	Our complaints policy and procedure clearly set out clear roles and responsibilities for colleagues, and a clear standard objective.

Section 8 - Self-assessment and compliance

Mandatory ‘must’ requirements

Code section	Code requirement	Comply: Yes/No	Evidence, commentary and any explanations
8.1	Landlords must carry out an annual self-assessment against the Code to ensure their complaint handling remains in line with its requirements.	Yes	Self-assessment December 2020: Complaint-Handling-Code-self-assessment-form-Beyond-Housing-122020.pdf Self-assessment December 2021: Complaint-Handling-Code-self-assessment-form-Dec-2021.pdf Self-assessment December 2022: Complaint-Handling-Code-Self-Assessment-Form-Dec2022.pdf
